

In Touch

At the last minute I couldn't go to Old Halesonians so when I saw the legend AB signifying match abandoned on the RFU website I needed to find out more.

I had been following Paul Doyle's excellent but cryptic story of the match on the club's Facebook reel so I knew Ludlow, despite going behind to an Old Halesonians try early on, had been quietly working their way back into a decent lead via tries from-centre Sam Brooks and then in the second half from Kieron Pinches and winger Toby Morgan, both converted by Jack Lines. But then the reel said full time 5-19 and the official website match ab.

An incident occurred eight minutes out from the end of the game where there was a coming together of players – the referee deemed that enough time had passed and whilst a player was being treated, the game was abandoned from that point, giving Ludlow the win. Rest assured that all players involved are fit and well and we appreciate the support from Old Halesonians for their concern and also their response to the incident.

Keiron, who came on at fly half when full back AJ was injured, made a big impression with a quick try and earned himself Ludlow Brewery Man of the Match award.

Playing with only 14 men, the seconds also beat Old Halesonians 34-10. Owen Jones scored a hat trick of tries, Logan Capleton scored on his debut and Oisín McDermott and Jonny Granger also scored with Tomas Evans adding the conversions. Ryan Cooper played in the front row for the first time and, I'm told, had a great game.

There are still 40 places available for the prematch meal on 6th December so please book in by this Wednesday to secure your place. 10 places have also become available for the Christmas meal on 13th December due to a cancellation. For either event please email events@ludlowrfc.co.uk to book your place.

This Saturday will see us back at The Linney entertaining Silhillians. KO 2.15pm. Our 2nds will be away at Dudley Kingswinford if anyone is able to go along to support them. Our teams always appreciate the support at away games and pictured below are four of our regular away supporters (Mike, Gerald, Wynne and Lynn) – feels like we should have had a caption competition for this photo!
