In Touch

Well, that was a nail biter but a single point gave Ludlow their first win of the season at Malvern on Saturday.

A brace of tries from captain Charlie Doyle earned the team a late win and Charlie the Ludlow Brewery man of the match award. The Perkins brothers, Tom and Rhys, also scored tries and Jack Lines converted two and added a penalty to make the final score 26-27 in Ludlow's favour.

I had an invitation to attend lunch before the game from Mark Gaubert who of course played in Ludlow's back row years ago. Unfortunately, I couldn't be there because it clashed with my annual pilgrimage to the Goodwood Revival meeting with my classic car and most of our committee were otherwise tied up with parking and camping for the food festival so apologies to Malvern and Mark in particular but I am sure they understand that fund raising to keep the club afloat has to be a priority. Sacrifices have to be made.

On Saturday we host Luctonians Seconds at The Linney 3pm KO and I know there will be a huge crowd for this long-awaited derby game including many of our mini and juniors who will be getting their chance to run on as mascots before the game. Hopefully it will be a game that inspires them for years to come.

It will be a double header too with the Seconds playing Aston Old Edwardians at home. Our new match programmes produced by Stuart Lewis will be available to add to your match day experience. Make sure you pick one up from the clubhouse.

I'm not sure if he will be playing but life will be changing for Steve Proctor and his wife, Lucy, who have a new baby, Charlie. Steve tells me he is looking forward to bringing Charlie down to watch his first game soon. It's Steve who sorts all our first aid rotas without which we couldn't put matches on. Congratulations to Steve and Lucy on behalf of everyone at Ludlow RFC.

See you soon,
 Andy Wright
